The extra protection you need.

Don't risk all you've worked for

In today's legal environment, your chances of being named in a large personal lawsuit are greater than ever before. It stands to reason that the more you own – in assets and property – the more you stand to lose. Without proper liability coverage, a legal judgment could take away your savings, property, and even your future earnings.

A million dollars worth of protection

West Bend Mutual Insurance Company can give you peace of mind – and a million dollars worth of protection – with our Home and Highway Personal Umbrella coverage.

By adding the Personal Umbrella coverage form to your Home and Highway policy, you'll get coverage where your basic Home and Highway coverage ends. The Personal Umbrella is designed to provide you with a large additional layer of liability insurance – over and above the liability insurance on your auto, home, boat, and other personal exposures.

A broad range of protection

Personal Umbrella also gives you valuable coverages against claims or legal actions that aren't covered under your primary policy, after you satisfy the policy deductible.

Coverages include:

- Activities as an uncompensated officer or director for a not-for-profit organization;
- Blanket contractual liability;
- Legal defense – in addition to the policy's $1,000,000 of liability coverages – in areas where coverage isn't provided by basic liability coverage;
- Worldwide coverage; and
- Protection for liability lawsuits resulting from non-occupational, not-for-profit activities, such as volunteer work for civic, religious, or other organizations.

You can also add the optional Uninsured and Underinsured motorist coverage to your Personal Umbrella. It provides you with additional bodily injury protection if you're injured in an accident with an at-fault uninsured or underinsured motorist.

Why you need extra protection

Most people rely on their primary insurance coverage for protection from liability lawsuits. But primary coverages – such as auto, homeowners, boat – offer limited protection. For example, if you were involved in an auto accident that permanently disabled the other driver, you could be sued for $1,000,000 or more. Your primary auto policy would provide protection up to the policy limits – for example, $250,000 – but that would fall far short of your needs.

Here are some everyday situations that make it clear why West Bend's Home and Highway Personal Umbrella is essential:

- A neighbor's child climbs a tree on your property, falls, and is injured. The claim settlement goes well beyond the $300,000 liability limit of your homeowners' policy.
- Your family dog bites a visitor to your home. A jury awards $400,000 to the victim.
- While renting a boat, you're involved in an accident with injuries. A $700,000 award is granted to the injured party.

Coverage that's best for you

West Bend's Personal Umbrella limit starts at $1,000,000; however, higher limits are available. Your independent insurance agent can help determine the amount of coverage that's best for you and if you qualify for any discounts.
